UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)

vs)	MEMORANDUM
)	AND ORDER
BRIAN R. MOORE,)
)
Defendant.)

Brian R. Moore appeals from Judge Piester's decision to hold his release application in abeyance until a psychological evaluation has been completed. Mr. Moore worries that because of such a delay he may lose his place in line at a treatment facility.

Given Judge Piester's careful reasoning, and whether viewed de novo or by a more deferential standard of review, the decision was correct. Moore is too dangerous to be released without an evaluation.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the appeal (filing 53) is denied.
